GENERAL BUSINESS

Redhead Point, Sanctuary Point.

Tom McDonald gave overview of Council's current view. Tom moved that the Basin Villages Forum send a letter to Shoalhaven
City Council requesting:

- 1 Complete dog prohibition on Redhead
Reserve;
 - 2 Clarification of why Council is now considering mowing of the reserve; and
 - 3 Assurance that there will be full consultation with Forum, and Tom McDonald, Co-Ordinator of the local bushcare group, and SCC regarding any works in the reserve.
- Narrell Brown 2nd the motion.

Blacket Park.

Maureen moved that Forum send a letter to Shoalhaven City Council – Maureen to draft this. David 2nd the motion.

Letter from Mayor Paul Green re Police prevention crime van.

David moved that the Forum send a letter of
'in principle' support for the initiative.
Also the Forum needs to ask for Kyle Stewart (or Clr Green) to come & talk in detail about this, at a general meeting.

Narrell Brown 2nd.

Animal signs.

The idea was raised of stencilling on the local roads, warnings for vehicles to reduce speed because of animals crossing, plus catseyes. This project might require a grant.
The Forum needs to meet with & discuss animal signage ideas with the local NANA group.

David moved, Rowena 2nd, that the BVForum send letter to Nana supporting a working group on this idea, and sourcing funding/grant. NRMA could also be approached in future, after discussions with NANA.

Council Proposed Closure of Vost Drive.

Kevin Dunne summarised known facts.
Acknowledgement was extended to Kevin
for his very thorough work in this issue.
A Public Meeting is now needed during the exhibition period.

A 'safer outcome' is needed with regard to this traffic issue. The onus is on the residents to reiterate their opinions to Council, during the Exhibition Period.

Shoalhaven Garden Tidy Bags.

Invite
David Hoym to talk at a forum general meeting in 2009, regarding this and green waste bins.

Draft management 2009/10 to 11 12.

When Anson Street is extended, there must be a cycleway linking to shopping centre.

Peter Vincent spoke again on the important of maintaining trapping of Myna birds.

Clr Robert Miller – then spoke to the meeting, formally introducing himself as a new Shoalhaven City Councillor.
